FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 10, 2018

Burnaby Mountain Theatre Company, who previously brought to you The Outsiders, as well as the musicals The Wizard of OZ and Hairspray presents...

The Drowsy Chaperone

Where an eccentric asocial musical theatre fan plays the record of his favourite 1928 hit musical, The Drowsy Chaperone, seeking to cure his current state of “nonspecific sadness”. The 20’s musical then quickly comes to life in his apartment, and the stage is transformed into the lively manor of a ditzy hostess. The animated plot including mix ups, mayhem and gay wedding are accompanied by the man’s wryly comments on the music, story, and actors.
