All of the team played extremely well throughout the three days of battle! Special recognition goes out to Heidi Tsui for receiving MVP status :)• The results are in! 3500 students across Canada participated in The University of Toronto's Biology Contest and the results are in! The top student from Burnaby Mountain is Tony Yi, and he also received a National Scholar Award. This award is given to students who placed in the top 4% and it is the first time a student from Burnaby Mountain has received such recognition. Congrats to all you took the challenge to write the contest!
