Jan 31 Mr. Richardson	FEMALE ATHLETE OF DECEMBER: Sophia Vivero Sophia is a member of the Senior girl’s basketball team and has combined academic success with tremendous on court work ethic. Sophia is an honour roll student and displays exceptional time management Sophia continuously leads her team in points and minutes played. She is the driving force behind the Senior girls success this year averaging 18 points per game and playing nearly every minute of every game. MALE ATHLETE OF DECEMBER: Addison Button Addison Button has been playing at an MVP level for the Juvenile Grade 9 boys basketball team for the month of December. During this month, he led the boys’ basketball team through three tournaments while capturing multiple MVPs along with a championship at the Capilano Tournament and a third-place team trophy at the Pinetree tournament. He averaged 16.25ppg at the Pinetree tournament on exceptional shooting splits. At the Rebels classic, Addison averaged 21.33ppg at his second tournament of the season. At the final tournament of the season, Addison averaged an astonishing 23.25ppg leading his team to a championship at the Capilano tournament. On December 10, Addison dropped 21 points in the season opener win against a tough Burnaby North team, who beat us in the previous season twice, leading the lions on an undefeated season record going into 2020. While demonstrating his leadership both on and off the court, Addison’s work ethic and commitment to basketball embodies what it means to be an MVP level BMSS athlete. COACH OF DECEMBER: Jon Phang This is Coach Jon’s first season here at BMSS and already he stands out as an expert communicator and strategist. Jon’s Jr boys are currently 2 and 2 in league play but have seen huge improvements in their style and effectiveness of the court for last year.
