Timeline	Messages
NEW Sep 26 Mr. Rolph	Grade Colour Day Winner Announcement: Thank you to everyone who participated in last Thursday's Grade Colour Day. The school spirit that was on display was fantastic! Congratulations to Ms. Steffen's Period 2 class, who were selected as the winners in our draw. Student Council hopes you enjoy your treats and thanks you for showing your spirit!
NEW Sep 23 Mr. Rolph	Attention students and staff: National Truth and Reconciliation Day will be observed across Canada next Tuesday. At our school, we will be commemorating both Truth and Reconciliation Day and Orange Shirt Day on Monday, September 29th. That day will follow a five-period schedule to give us time to reflect, raise awareness, and engage in meaningful learning. Together, we'll acknowledge the ongoing relevance of these issues and consider the actions we can take as part of our shared journey toward reconciliation. This week, as we prepare for our commemoration of Truth and Reconciliation Day, please listen closely to our daily announcements. Each day, we'll be sharing important context and reflections to help deepen our understanding of the significance of this day, and to highlight the calls to action that guide our ongoing journey toward reconciliation.
Sep 24 Mr. Rolph	Grade 9 Council: Any grade 9s who would like to be on Grade 9 council and contribute to the success of your grad in 2029, come to Ms. Guerrero's room (208) on Wednesdays at lunch. Our first meeting will be on Wednesday the 24th.
Sep 25 Mr. Rolph	GRADE 8 STUDENT COUNCIL REP APPLICATION: Grade 8s, are you looking for an opportunity to meet new students, get involved in your school, make a difference, help others create memories and start working towards making your graduation year amazing? If you said yes to any of the above, you might want to join our student council. Applications are now available from Mr. Rolph in room 213. Completed applications are due on September 26th. If you have questions about student council, come to room 213 or speak to a current member of student council.

SCHOOL GOALS:
Goal 1: To foster an educated, responsible and reflective community of Digitally Literate Citizens.
Goal 2: To increase student awareness, understanding and practice of healthy living.

Quantum Communicators at UBC

The United Nations has named 2025 as the International Year of Quantum Science and Technology! On October 25th, join us at UBC Vancouver from 10am – 3pm, to explore the future of cybersecurity and quantum science through hands-on challenges and creative storytelling. Join us for a dynamic day featuring an interactive encryption activity while we cover basics in coding for new learners, a guided quantum communication workshop where we map how quantum computing is relevant to various STEM fields, and a lunch panel with researchers and industry experts. Special guest Dr. Charles Antoine, quantum physicist, author, and 2025 Scientific Outreach Ambassador for CNRS Physics, will help us reimagine how quantum science can be shared with the world.
We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Antoine to this event with the generous support of the French Embassy in Canada and the Institut Français du Canada. Come spend the day with Dr. Antoine and other experts! Cost to attend is $10. Register at : https://tinyurl.com/mre8amuf

UBC Lab Day

"On this Lab Day, we're handing you the questions — and the tools to start answering them! From building a hypothesis to testing a theory, you'll step into the process of scientific discovery. This immersive simulation will break down real differences between a dry and wet lab in Science, Engineering and Technology. Then, you will take on a collaborative research journey with your peers, and gain tools along the way that will strengthen your research skills. You'll explore how scientists think, solve, and imagine — no goggles required. Even more, you can expect to meet researchers from UBC who will share their lab journeys, hear about the role ethics play in research and if time allows, we may get to witness their lab spaces as well! Ready to explore, test, and think like a researcher? We'll meet you in the Research Room." Join us on Saturday October 4 from 10am – 3pm at UBC. The cost to attend is $10. To register go to : https://tinyurl.com/42rnzv6x

SFU STEM Speakers Series – Cultivating a Career: Lessons from Rocks, Kids, and Microbes
The Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Speaker Series provides secondary school students with the opportunity to meet and interact with university students, faculty members, and/or working professionals in STEM fields. The September session is Katherine Rabika, a PhD student researching science communication in the wine industry at Stellenbosch University in South Africa. She went from studying the Earth as a geological engineer, to teaching kids in classrooms, to now exploring how best to communicate scientific research. Each of these experiences gave her skills she didn't realize she would need later. In this talk, Katherine Rabika will show how changing direction can actually make you stronger in science, and why your career path doesn't need to be set in stone. Join the virtual session on September 20 from 1:00 – 2:00pm on Zoom. To register go to: https://sciencealive.ca/stem-speaker-series

SFU Science Alive: Exploring AI: the Good, the Bad, & Beyond
Exploring AI: the Good, the Bad, & Beyond is a series of seven online workshops that run from 10-11:30 am every Saturday between September 20 - November 8, 2025 (except for the Thanksgiving weekend, October 11). In this workshop series, Grade 8-12 students will explore artificial intelligence (AI), while learning more about generative AI, ethics of AI, and real-world uses of AI in STEM fields. We recommend having some experience in text-based coding before joining this program. There are limited spots available in this program because we want to ensure that every student receives the support necessary to maximize their experience in this program. Please do not sign up if you know you will miss more than one workshop in this 7-week program. For more info and to register go to :
https://sciencealive.ca/exploring-ai

UBC Women in Orthopaedics (WORTH) Workshop
UBC would like to extend an invitation to the Women In Orthopaedics (WORTH) workshop on Saturday, October 25, from 9am – 12:30pm at BC Children's Hospital in Vancouver. This workshop is open to all young women in high schools (grades 10-12), including women-identifying individuals and non-binary and gender non-conforming students interested in pursuing a career in healthcare. The workshop aims to provide more insight and clarity on careers particularly in the areas of orthopaedics and engineering. Visit their website for more details on the program and its workshops: https://orthopaedics.med.ubc.ca/women-in-orthopaedics/. Sign up here: https://ubc.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_2mGNPXZhlBMoMaW
