Nov 20 Mr. Rolph	 Culture Fest Tickets! BMSS Culture Fest is happening on Thursday Nov. 20th! This is an annual event to celebrate our school community and the diverse cultures at Mountain that enrich it. You are all invited to join us to celebrate with us! Enjoy an evening that includes a variety of performances and a wide range of food. - Tickets will be sold in the upper commons from November 4th-21st at lunch for $3 each. - Doors will open at 5:30pm, food tickets will be sold at this time and throughout the event. Food service begins at 6pm. Performances will start at approximately 7:15pm All proceeds from this event will go towards the Progressive Intercultural Community Services (PICS) Society who provide Employment Programs, Settlement Services, Language Services, Social Programs and Housing Services to support new immigrants, seniors, farm workers, women and youth.
Nov 20 Ms. Arron	Title: Bracelet Bar! “Health and Wellness Council is hosting a free bracelet making event on Thursday, November 20th during lunch in the lower commons. All students are welcome, and supplies will be provided. Come get creative and make some fun memories with your friends!”
Ms. Williams 	Mountain Reads book 2: Catfish Rolling by Clara Kumagai There's a catfish under Japan, and when it rolls, the land rises and falls. At least, that's what Sora was told after she lost her mother to an earthquake so powerful that it cracked time itself. When Sora's father disappears, she has no choice but to venture deep into the abandoned time zones to find him, and perhaps the catfish itself . . .
Ms. Williams 	Another Mountain Reads title Messy Perfect by local author Tanya Boteju: Cassie Perera’s new school year brings an unwelcome surprise—the return of Cassie’s former friend, Ben, who left a few years ago after a homophobic bullying incident Cassie knows she didn’t do enough to prevent. Still harboring guilt from her inaction, Cassie decides to team up with the neighboring public school to found an underground Gender and Sexuality Alliance—as a complicated strategy for making things up to Ben.
